
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All praise to the creator for providing me with the capability to complete my thesis.

I am indebted to my honourable teacher and thesis supervisor, Dr. M. M. Jana, Reader and Head, Department of Geography & Applied Geography, University of North Bengal, India for his valuable guidance at different stages of preparation of this thesis. It would have been quite impossible to carry on the research work and bring it to a final shape without his valuable suggestions and continuous encouragement.

My sincere thank goes to the Principal, Sarankhola Degree College, Sarankhola, Bagerhat, Bangladesh for his valuable suggestions, good wishes and sympathetic reminders to complete the research work.

I also thank my respected colleagues, friends, students, all the staffs of the Geography Department of Sarankhola Degree College in Bangladesh and well-wishers out side the department for helping me with constant encouragement and support. The Governing Body of the Sarankhola Degree College provided me with study leave and initially helped in the research work without which I could not have been able to complete this work.

I am indebted to my respected teachers of the Department of Geography & Applied Geography, North Bengal University, India, who extended helping hands. I am also indebted to Smt Krishna Bagchi a staff of the Geography Department for helping me to prepare my thesis. I am also equally thankful to Smt Krishna Jana for inspiration and valuable suggestions.

I am grateful to prominent local people & market attendants for providing me with necessary data and literature for completion of my work. I offer my thanks to all of them.

I also acknowledge my deep gratitude to Dr. Maudood Elahi, Professor, Department of Geography, Jahangirnagar University, Bangladesh, who was the first one to inspire me. I am grateful to Professor, Jafor Reza Khan, & Professor Zabidul Hasan and all the teachers of the Department of Geography, Rajshahi University, Bangladesh. I will ever remember this continuous inspiration and valuable suggestions.

Thanks are also due to my field investigators and key informants and various officials for their active help and co-operation. My special respect goes to Abu Jafor Howlader, staff of 'thana' statistical office, and livestock surgeon, Md. Hemayet Uddin Howlader 'thana' livestock officer, Sarankhola, Bangladesh, who gave me valuable information and police stationwise as well as district level data for the study.

I am personally thankful to Mr. Babul Biswas for providing computer's and composing the matter of this thesis.

Last but not the least, I am indebted to my wife Reabu, and my family members for there help and encouragement to complet my work.
