

CONTENTS

Preface.....	vii-viii
Abstract	ix-xiii
1. INTRODUCTION.....	1-13
1.1 The Idea of Human Body.....	1
1.2 Darwinian Concept of Evolution.....	2
1.3 The Transition of Human Body.....	3
1.4 The Body Consciousness.....	5
1.5 The Body as Somaesthetics.....	7
1.6. The Body as ‘Written Subject’ in the contemporary Culture.....	11
2. THE CONCEPT OF BODY: TRADITIONAL VIEWS.....	14-43
2.1. The Concept of Body According to Aristotle.....	14
2.2. Descartes and the Body.....	20
2.3. The concept of the Body as conceived by Spinoza.....	37
3. THE BODY AS LIVED EXPERIENCE.....	44-79
3.1. The Notion of Body as Viewed by Martin Heidegger.....	44-55
3.1.1. Introduction.....	44
3.1.2. Human Existence in the Eyes of Heidegger.....	45
3.1.3. The Concept of Mood.....	46
3.1.4. The Fallenness of Dasein into the World.....	48
3.1.5. The Bodily Dasein	49
3.1.6. Dasein as both Lived and Corpse Body.....	51
3.1.7. Sickness and Unhomelikeness	53
3.1.8. How Heidegger Signifies “The Body” Basically is.....	54
3.2. The Notion of the Body as Conceived by Maurice Merleau-Ponty.....	55-72
3.2.1. Introduction.....	55
3.2.2. Aim of Phenomenological Origin.....	57
3.2.3. In the way of Fulfilling his aim: The Role of Perception.....	60

3.2.4.	Notion of One’s Own Body.....	65
3.2.5.	Synthesis of the Body.....	68
3.3	The Notion of Body as Framed by Nietzsche.....	72-79
3.3.1.	The Concept of Text.....	72
3.3.2.	The Body: Plurality of Intellect.....	73
3.3.3.	Storytelling and the Body.....	74
3.3.4.	The Concept of Übermensch	76
4.	THE POSTHUMAN TREND.....	80-129
4.1.	Introduction.....	80
4.2.	Posthumanist Methodologies.....	81
4.2.1.	New Materialism.....	81
4.2.2.	Antihumanism.....	83
4.2.3.	Metahumanism.....	83
4.3.	Posthumanism.....	86
4.4.	Transhumanism.....	91
4.4.1.	What is Transhumanism?.....	91
4.4.2.	Who is Transhuman?.....	95
4.5.	Humans and their Limitations.....	96
4.5.1.	Lifespan.....	97
4.5.2.	Intellectual Capacity.....	97
4.5.3.	The Functionality of the Body.....	98
4.5.4.	Sensory Mode, Special Abilities, and Sensibility.....	99
4.5.5.	Human Mood, Energy, Self-control, and Willpower.....	100
4.6.	Transhumanist Project and its Basic Conditions.....	101
4.6.1.	A Worldwide Security for all.....	101
4.6.2.	Technological Advancements.....	101
4.6.3.	Open Access.....	102
4.7.	Transhumanist Values: Exploration of the Posthuman Realm.....	103
4.7.1.	The Core Transhumanist Values.....	103

4.7.2. Derivative Values.....	105
4.8. The Concept of Cyborg.....	109
4.8.1. Implantations: External and Internal	112
4.8.2. Cyborg as the Lived Experience.....	113
4.8.3. Real-life Cyborgs.....	115
4.8.3.1. Neil Harbisson.....	115
4.8.3.2. Dr. Kevin Warwick.....	116
4.8.3.3. Nigel Ackland.....	117
4.8.3.4. Jesse Sullivan.....	117
4.8.3.5. Cameron Clapp.....	118
4.8.3.6. Claudia Mitchell.....	119
4.8.3.7. Jerry Jalava.....	120
4.8.3.8. Professor Steve Mann.....	120
4.8.3.9. Stelios Arcadiou.....	122
4.9. The Transition of Ethical Concepts.....	123
4.10. Ethical Issues Regarding Cyborgs.....	125
4.11. Significance of Cyborgs in the Contemporary World.....	127
5. POSTHUMANISM: A BLESSING OR A CURSE: ETHICAL AND CRITICAL OVERVIEW.....	130-150
5.1. The Human and The Enhancement.....	130
5.2. Criticisms against Transhumanism and Possible Replies.....	131
5.2.1. Does Transhumanism Carry any Sense?.....	131
5.2.2. Transhumanism v/s Bioethics.....	134
5.3. The Application of Morality in the Domain of Transhumanism.....	140
5.4. The Position of Transhumans in the Human-World.....	141
5.5. Transmutation of Reality.....	143
5.6. Cybernism: New Possibilities.....	146
5.7. Is becoming a Posthuman Good for Humans?.....	147
5.8. The COVID-19 Pandemic and Posthuman Move.....	148

6.	CONCLUSION.....	151-160
7.	BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	161-170
8.	Index	171-172