

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis has been prepared under the supervision of Professor D.P. Sinha formerly Head of the Department of History, and ex Sir Jadunath Professor of History of North Bengal University. I am deeply indebted to him for supervising my work at all stages; without his unstinted help I could not have prepared this dissertation.

Words fail me to express my gratitude to the headmasters of the high schools of Dinhata, Mathabhanga, and Mekhligenj, Coochbehar. Fanindradev High School, Jalpaiguri, the ex-headmaster of Gosanimari school, Coochbehar, Government high school, Darjeeling, the headmistresses of Maharani Girls' School and Nepali Girls' School, Darjeeling, Rajkumar Girls' School, Dinhata, Coochbehar and Sadar Girls' School, Jalpaiguri, the principals of Goethal's School, Kurseong, Loreto College, Darjeeling, Mount Hermon of Darjeeling, St. Joseph's, Darjeeling, St. Helen's, Kurseong, Scottish University Mission Institute, Kalimpong, Turnbull School, Darjeeling who helped me with all the available records of the respective institutions.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not place on record my obligation to the librarians and members of the staff of National Library, Calcutta, Calcutta University Library, Goethal's Library (St. Xaviers College, Calcutta), Serampore College Library, St. Joseph's College Library, Darjeeling, Coochbehar State Library, Divisional Commissioner's Library, Jalpaiguri, Record Room of the Deputy Commissioner's Office, Darjeeling, Ustarpara Joykrishna Library and North Bengal University Library. I had also the opportunity to draw upon the State Archives of West Bengal, the members of which extended to me all possible help and co-operation. My special thanks to Sri Ashok Sarker and Sri Mrigen Biswas. My thanks also to those who have helped me greatly by either copying or typing the original documents. My gratitude too to the Scottish Church College, Calcutta.

I would also like to express my thanks to Father Whelan of North Point, Darjeeling, Fr. Vritthoff and Fr. Verstrsetan of St. Xaviers, Calcutta, and Late Parasmoni Pradhan of Kalimpong whose invaluable help shall be remembered gratefully.

My gratitude also to the very Reverend Bishop of Darjeeling (Roman Catholic Church) and the very Reverend Bishop Ghosh of the Church of North India. Rev. Bishop Ghosh had gone out of his way to place at my disposal all the records relating to the progress and development of education in the districts of Darjeeling and Jalpaiguri under the supervision of the Church of Scotland.

I am grateful to my departmental colleagues and Professor S.P. Sengupta, former head of the Department of English, North Bengal University whom I consulted on several occasions.

I am also thankful to my parents, my children and specially my husband who co-operated with me at every state of my arduous task.

Last but not the least I extend my thanks to the typists who typed my thesis.

---