

FOREWORD

The work embodied in this thesis entitled "Studies on various aspects of food dyes" submitted for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Science) of the University of North Bengal relates mainly to the chemical analysis and physico-chemical studies of food dyes.

I would tender my most sincere thanks to Dr. B.R. Roy, Director, Central Food Laboratory, Calcutta and Hony. Lecturer, Department of Biochemistry, University of Calcutta, for his kind interest, valuable guidance and constant encouragement in course of this study. I am highly grateful to Mr. B. Majhee, Lecturer, Department of Chemistry, North Bengal University, for his valuable suggestion in conducting some of the critical studies of the present investigation. I am also deeply indebted to Prof. H.M. Khastagir, Head of the Department of Chemistry, University of North Bengal, Dr. K.C. Guha, Chief Technical Officer, Central Food Laboratory, Calcutta, Dr. A.K. Guha, Junior Analyst, Central Food Laboratory, Calcutta, for the helpful suggestions to me during the investigation. I would be failing in my duties if I do not express my gratitude and sincere thanks to all my colleagues in the Central Food Laboratory particularly to Mr. J. Chakraborti, Mrs. A. Saha, Mr. R. Mukherjee, Mr. S. Saha and Mr. P. Talukdar.

My grateful thanks are also due to following individuals or organisations, who helped me in many ways : Dr. A. Roy, Siliguri College, Mr. A. Mukherjee, Central Drug Laboratory, Calcutta, Indian Institute of Experimental Medicine, Calcutta, Indian Association for the Cultivation of Science, Calcutta.

I am indebted to my parents for their constant encouragement. Thanks to Mr. S. Bhattacharyya for taking pains in typing this thesis.
