

C O N T E N T E

	Page
1. Chapter - I
The Development of Hare's Moral Philosophy from The Language of Morals to Moral Thinking	1-20
2. Chapter - II
Hare on Moral Reasoning	21-30
3. Chapter - III
A critique of Hare's Position: Phillipa Foot: Moral and Empirical Criteria	31-47
4. Chapter - IV
Moral Universalisation : Kant and Hare	48-57
5. Chapter - V
Universalizability : Hare And J. L. Mackie	58-63
6. Chapter - VI
Hare's Critique of Naturalism	64-78
7. Chapter - VII
Hare on the levels of Moral Thinking	79-89
8. Chapter - VIII
The Concept of Choice : Sartre-Hare View	90-106
9. Chapter - IX
Concluding Reflections: Facts and Obligations	107-13
10. Notes and References	132-13
11. Bibliography	139-14