

My Gratuities

This work would have been a mere dream, had it not been cooperated by a number of people. Within this limited space it is not possible to acknowledge everyone by name, yet I woe a great sense of indebtness to all of them for their cooperation and contribution.

I will always cherish a deep sense of admiration and gratitude for my respected 'Sir' Dr. KB Datta, D.Sc., Profesora of Life Sciences, Department of Botany, University of North Bengal, for his constant help, selfless devotion, effective criticism, friendly relationship and parental care. I am privileged to have been his student.

No word can express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Dilip De Sarker, Reader, Department of Botany, Raiganj University College, who not only initiated me into doing this course but also suggested the dissertation. His unfailing support was a continuous stimulus for the completion of this work.

I feel pleasure in extending my sincere thanks to Dr. AP Das, Reader, Department of Botany, University of North Bengal who in spite of his busy schedule, spent some of his valuable time for taking some photographs.

My profound thanks are to Prof. SC Gupta, Department of Botany, University of Delhi for allowing me to learn some techniques in his laboratory.

I am indebted to all the faculty members of Department of Botany for valuable suggestions and continuous encouragement throughout the course of this work. I would also like to extend my thanks to the non-teaching staff of this Department for their untiring help.

Help from friends and colleagues, Surojit, Kallol, Arup, Jaydeep, Malay, Narayan, Manjur Kadir and Jayeeta is greatly acknowledged.

I am immensely thankful to Mrs. S. Datta for her love and concern for me throughout the work.

Sincere thank is also offered to Department of Science and Technology, Govt. of West Bengal, for providing financial support.

Gratitude is the memory of heart and could not be expressed in words yet it will be injustice if I do not write a line for Sreejata without whose untiring help, selfless love, and excellent company, this work would not have been a reality.

Lastly it will be only superfluous to acknowledge my parents, sister and family members for their immense moral support throughout my doctoral study.
