

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I joined the department of Zoology, University of North Bengal as a UGC research fellow under a scheme sanctioned to Dr. A. Mukhopadhyay. Initially I found it an uphill task to undertake the multifaceted but challenging project. However, through my best efforts, I trust, I could make some positive progress and contribution. In this venture, I was greatly inspired by the life style and work practices of my supervising teacher, Dr. A. Mukhopadhyay.

I am grateful to the Director, Centre for Life Sciences, Dr. C. S. Chakrabarti, Head, Department of Zoology, Dr. E. C. Deb, Prof. A. K. Chakraborty, Prof. B. C. Pal, Dr. J. Pal, Dr. T. K. Chaudhuri, Dr. S. Barat for providing laboratory facilities and invaluable counselling.

I extend my heart-felt thanks to Dr. A. C. Cohen, Dr. S. E. Naranjo, Dr. R. L. Bugg, Dr. R. L. Crocker, Dr. J. E. Funderburk, Dr. V. Y. Yokoyama, USA, Dr. P. A. Oomen, Netherlands, Dr. S. Hassan, Germany and many other workers for their bountiful help of literature and encouragement.

I express my unfathomable thanks to Professor T. N. Ananthakrishnan, Director, Loyala college, Madras, Dr. B. Banerjee, Former Advisor, Tea Research Association, Dr. N. Muraleedharan, Assistant Director, Tea Research Institute, UPASI, for literature, encouragement and suggestions.

I sincerely acknowledge the Vice-chancellor and the University authority for providing me the space required for experimental tea garden. I will fail in my duty if I don't mention the names of Mr. N. K. Sanyal and Mr. J. Das, Sanyal Tea Estate, Mr. S. K. Gupta, Matigara Tea Estate, Mr. S. Sinhababu, Tirrihannah Tea Garden, and Mr. S. Singh of Mohurgong & Gulma Tea Estate for their kind help needed for raising experimental garden and also my introduction to tea pests.

The present work would have not timely completed without the help rendered by Dr. A. Roy, Deptt. of Commerce and Mr. G. Aich, Centre for Computer Sciences, N.B.U. for providing some vital software packages to our laboratory. I owe my gratitude to my colleagues and friends specially Dr.D. Thapa, Mr. B. Saha, Dr. S. Mondal, Dr. T. K.Mondal, Mr. G. Das, Mr. K. Biswas, Mr. S. Sanyal, Mr. P. K. Muhuri, Mr. M. Das, Mr. J. Chakraborty for ungrudging help rendered whenever needed.

The present study was financially supported by University Grants Commission, New Delhi through a low budget project (1990-1993) sanctioned to my supervisor, Dr. A. Mukhopadhyay.

Date: November 30, 1993.
