

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The dissertation titled “Women in the Lives of the National Leaders of India: A Study on Pandit Jawahralal Nehru” attained its final form as a result of the invaluable help and support extended to me by various persons and institutions during the course of my research work.

At the outset I express my deepest gratitude to my revered guide and supervisor Professor Ichhimuddin Sarkar for his continuous support, encouragement and guidance. He has guided me consistently throughout my writings with his valuable knowledge and insight, the outcome of which is the work in the present form. I also express my debt of gratitude to all the faculty members of the Department of History of University of North Bengal for their necessary help and assistance.

I am thankful to the Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, New Delhi, Indian Institute of Advanced Study, Shimla, Central Library, University of North Bengal, Central Library, Tripura University for letting me access the relevant materials and documents needed for the research work.

I sincerely thank Mrs. Ayesha Sarkar for also being a constant source of motivation in the course of my research work. I thank my friend Supriya Biswas,

Assistant Professor of Gour Mahavidyalaya who was there with me during my research work and rendered me all possible help in every ways.

I would also like to express my thanks to my department colleagues Professor Sukhendu Debbarma, Professor Satyadeo Poddar, Dr. Nishikant Kolge, Shri Lincoln Reang, Dr. Monisankar Misra and Shri Francis Hrangkhal for their constant help and motivation.

Acknowledgement would not be complete without thanking my family members who have stood by me throughout these years of my research work. I thank my mother Pushpa Rai, who has always inspired me throughout my academic life. I thank my father Late Bindraman Rai, who would have been very happy and proud to see the final completion of my work today. I thank my husband Sunil Kalai who has also been a constant source of motivation and strength and patiently beared with me during the course of my research work. I thank my sisters Annu and Pappu and my brother-in-law Rujas for their support.

Lastly, I take this opportunity to thank Tripura University for granting me one year Study Leave to complete my Ph.D. work successfully.
