

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immense pleasure that by the Grace of Almighty, I was able to complete my doctoral work. I convey my heartfelt gratitudes to Dr. S.C. Santra, my Research Guide, whose laudable guidance made the planning, execution and completion of this mammoth project, a success. Although his utmost strict supervision and occasional scoldings made me toil very hard, he was the main source of my inspiration. I am equally grateful to Dr. A.P.Das, my Research Guide, who helped me in every step of my work and was kind enough to provide me many books, reprints, notes etc. My thanks go to all the members of Botany Department of North Bengal University and Ecology Department of Kalyani University. I am thankful to Dr. P.K. Sarkar, Head of Botany Department for providing laboratory facilities. My special thanks go to Dr. B.N. Chakraborty and Dr. U. Chakraborty for excellent co-operation rendered to me. Without the help of Dr. B.N. Chakraborty and Dr. U. Chakraborty, it would have been difficult for me to get the leaves of Darjeeling tea varieties. Thanks to Mr. Pratip Basu of Botany Department for helping me on many occasions. I am grateful to Prof. B. Bhattacharya, Dean of Faculty of Science and Dr. T.K. Chatterjee, Registrar, whose excellent co-operation and whole-hearted support worked as a moral booster in achieving the fulfilment.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not convey my gratitudes to Mr. S.S. Ahuja, Chairman, Tea Board and Dr. T.C. Chaudhuri, Director (Research), Tea Board for allowing me to use the equipments and laboratory of Tea Board.. My thanks go to Dr. B.C. Barbor, Director, Tocklai Experimental Station, Dr. V.S. Sharma, Former Director, UPASI Tea Research Institute, Dr. L. Manivel, Former Head, Division of Physiology, UPASI Tea Research Institute, Dr. S. Marimuthu, Head, Division of Physiology and Dr. Rajkumar also from the Division of Physiology, UPASI Tea Research Institute, Prof. M.K.V.Carr, Cransfield University, Bedford, U.K. for helping me with various literature and valuable suggestions. I am thankful to Dr. F.

(ii)

Rahman, Former Head, Department of Agronomy, Tocklai Experimental Station and Dr. H.P. Bezbaruah, Former Head, Department of Botany, Tocklai Experimental Station for their whole-hearted co-operation right from the beginning of the work. The contribution of Mr. R.S. Tiwari, Superintendent, Long View Tea Co. Ltd. can never be forgotten. He was kind enough to supply the plants of all the required varieties. Without the plants I couldn't have worked.

Lastly, I convey my gratitudes to my wife Nargis, my children Ejaz and Nafeesa , without whose inspiration and moral support I couldn't have completed the work.
