

C O N T E N T S

Acknowledgements

Introduction ... I

I DARJEELING :

The Background ... 1

Government Efforts to spread education in the hills and the Terai ... 6

Efforts on the part of the Government to promote education in the tea-plantations in the district of Darjeeling ... 87

The Missionary contributions to the development of education in the district of Darjeeling ... 116

Private enterprise in promoting education in Darjeeling ... 186

Establishment of schools for Europeans and Anglo-Indian children by the Roman Catholic and Protestant Missionaries in Darjeeling ... 195

II. COOCHBEHAR :

Education in Coochbehar in the 19th Century - The State of Coochbehar, a general survey ... 270

Condition of education between 1860-1880 ... 287

Condition of education between 1881-1900 ... 295

Primary Education ... 311

Female Education ... 330

Night Schools ... 351

Secondary Education - State
Model Vernacular Schools ... 359

Middle Vernacular Schools ... 381

Middle English Schools	...	...	394
Sub-Divisional Schools	...	...	403
Higher Education	...	...	451
Normal School	...	...	468
Artizan School	...	...	475
Sanskrit Tol	...	...	479
Muslim education in the State	...	...	481
Religion and Social position of the students of Coochbehar	...	...	483
The Boarding School	...	...	488
College Boarding Institution	...	...	491

III. JALPAIGURI

The background	...	...	495
A General Survey of educational development	...	...	500
Primary education	...	...	514
Secondary Education - Middle Venacular and Middle English schools	...	...	526
Training School	...	...	536
Education of the children of labourers employed in the te-plantations of Terai	...	...	543
Christian Missionary activities in the Jalpaiguri district	...	...	547
CONCLUSION	...	...	550
APPENDICES :
Tables	...	...	i
Map indicating the growth of education in Bengal in 1896-97	...	...	ix
Copy of a letter of Acharya Dwijendra Nath Seal	...	...	x
Select Bibliography	...	...	xi