

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I would like to have this opportunity of expressing my heart felt and profound gratitude to Dr. B.Das, Department of Mathematics, North Bengal University; for suggesting me the problems and giving his continued and helpful guidance during the progress of this work.

For the continued facilities received so long to complete my research work, I can not but express my sincere gratitude to the Head and the Teaching and Non - Teaching Staff of the Department of 'Mathematics, North Bengal University.

I take a special privilege to express my thankfulness to Mr. Sajal Giri, research - scholar, Department of physics, North Bengal University.

Further, I acknowledge my thankfulness to all my colleagues in Balurghat High School, Balurghat, D.Dinajpur.

I fine, I must express my indebtedness to my mother Gita Das, elder brother Sri Subhas Das, wife Smt. Anuradha Sen and the other members of the family without whose invaluable co-operation this work, perhaps, would not have been possible.

Ashoke Das.
