

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to express my heartiest regards and deepest gratitude to my respectable supervisor Dr.Dhurjati Prasad Datta, Associate Professor, Department Of Mathematics, North Bengal University, Siliguri, West Bengal, India, for his invaluable help, with out whose constant inspirations and encouragement I might never have put this work together. There goes my deepest admiration for his talent.

I am also grateful to all the honorable teachers, research scholars, students and staff of the Department of Mathematics, N.B.U. for their kind support and inspiration.

I would like to acknowledge my sincere thanks to the Principal, Ananda Chandra College, Jalpaiguri and all of my colleagues, in this college.

I wish to express my indebtness specially to my respectable sir Dr. Prasanta Kr. Chaudhuri, Ex.Professor of Department of Mathematics, N.B.U. and the father like figure of Sri Sankar Kr. Datta, S.P.R; who have constantly given me mental supports to continue the work.

And finally I remind the gratitude to my departed father, my mother and my family members for their sacrificed inspirations in completion of this work.
