

Acknowledgement

This thesis is the outcome of a long rigorous journey in which I have been encouraged and supported by many peoples who actually make my dream possible. It is really pleasure moment for me to express my full gratitude to them.

First of all, I would like to express my deepest gratitude and very sincere thanks to my honourable supervisor Dr. Sajal Das, Assistant Professor in Chemistry, University of North Bengal, for all his support, guidance and constant encouragement throughout the entire course of the research work.

I also wish to express my warm and earnest respect to my co-supervisor Prof. Basudeb Basu, Professor in Chemistry, University of north Bengal, for his precious and inspiring suggestion throughout my research work.

Many thanks also to Prof. P. Ghosh who always encourage me to do better in my research work.

I express my full gratitude to Dr. M. N. Roy, Head and all respected Teachers, Office staff as well as all research scholars of this Department of Chemistry, University of North Bengal, for their valuable suggestion and co-operation.

I would like to thank my lab members Sumanta, Barnali, Sagnik, Seema, Somashree, Gautam and Pranesh for their help and co-operation. This Ph.D. would not have been possible without the immense support and enthusiasm shown by my brother Prasanjit. I can't have any word to mention his contribution in my research work.

I convey my special thanks to Sujit and Kinkar for all their support, encouragement related to research work as well as beyond the research work.

I appreciate the interest and enthusiasm shown by Jayanta, Antara, Debashis, Dibakar, Sujan during this research period.

I must thank my better-half Pinki for her understanding and allowing me enough time in last two years, without her mental support and inspiration this work would not have been possible.

I really acknowledge my brother Koushik for his encouragement and support during my work.

The single largest contribution in shaping me properly what I am today comes from the faith, hope, prayer and sacrifice of my parents Sri Swapan Ganguly & Smt. Shila Ganguly. Words are inadequate for expressing such feelings.

I would like to express my sincere apologies for any mistake on my part or any word or behaviour of mine that may have hurt anyone working with me.

Thank you.
