

The thesis contains the results of the work done during the last five years in the Expert Systems Laboratory, Department of Computer Application, North Bengal University. A part of the results has already been published. I would like to record my gratitude to my Supervisors, Dr. R. K. Samanta, Reader of the Department of Computer Application, North Bengal University and Dr. (Mrs) Mridula Chatterjee for their constant care and invaluable guidance. I am indebted to the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, Human Resource Development Group, Govt. of India for granting me Senior Research Fellowship for the Project entitled "KID : Expert System for Foetal and Child Growth and Development for North Bengal Districts - An Object-Oriented-Approach". I must acknowledge my gratitude to the authorities of i) Department of Computer Application and Computer Centre, North Bengal University, ii) North Bengal Clinic and Research Centre, Siliguri, for giving me the privilege to collect relevant data as well as for their kind gesture in giving me all the facilities I needed during the work. My gratitude to Dr. Santanu kar and Dr. Salil Datta can hardly be overstated. They are who gave me inspiration when I needed it most. Moreover, I would like to record my gratitude to Prof. D. Dutta Majumder, Professor Emeritus of ISI, & Emeritus Scientist of CSIR, Indian Statistical Institute, Calcutta; Er. B. Majumder, Executive Engineer, AGRI-MECH, Jalpaiguri Division, Jalpaiguri; Dr. S. C. Pal, Lecturer, Department of Computer Application, North Bengal University; and Dr. D. Pal, Lecturer, Department of Paediatrics, North Bengal Medical College & Hospital for their various kinds of help. My sincere thanks are due to Dr. D. Rastogi, Consultant Radiologist and Sonologist for his valuable advice and guidance during data collection. I wish to pay my special thanks to Dr. A. K. Saha, Expert Systems Laboratory, Department of Computer Application, North Bengal University for his continuous help all the time during last five years. His suggestions and advice as a Co-author of some part of my work should duly be acknowledged. Lastly, I am specially thankful to my wife Swati whose encouraging role during the hectic days and nights of my work defies exaggeration. No less inspiring was the role of my parents as well as that of the other members of our family during the period and I must thank them all from the core of my heart.
