

Contents

1. Acknowledgement	i-ii
2. Abbreviations	iii
3. List of Tables	iv
4. List of Figures.....	v-vi
CHAPTER I: Introduction	1-13
Overview of Literature	7
References	12
CHAPTER II : Agricultural Science.....	14-53
Section I : Early Period.....	14
Advent of the Aryans: Beginning of the Study of Indian Flora by the Aryans	23
Post-Vedic Period.....	29
Section II: Later Period.....	36
Procurement of Healthy Seeds.....	46
Kṛṣi-Gītā.....	47
References.....	49
CHAPTER III : Origin and Development of Plant Science.....	54-131
Section I: Early Phase.....	54
References	78
Section II: Later Phase.....	82
Types of Plants	88
Seed Treatment.....	91
Constellation of Sowing.....	94
Distance between Plants.....	95
Designing and Layout of Planting.....	99

Watering of Plants.....	100
Nourishment of Trees and Plants.....	105
Horticultural Wonders.....	127
References.....	129
CHAPTER IV: Animal Science	132-191
Advent of the Aryans.....	135
On Horse Science.....	135
Birth of Imperialism and its Effects on the Study of Animals and their Habitats.....	142
References.....	185
CHAPTER V: Attitude and Conservation Measures.....	192-240
Background.....	192
Conservation from Above.....	192
Protection and Conservation Measures.....	199
Aśoka on Protection and Conservation.....	206
Scriptural Dicta of the Ancient Hīndus.....	211
Manu on Plant Protection.....	211
Viṣṇu's Dictum on Plant Protection.....	212
Agnipurāṇa.....	213
Manu and Viṣṇu on Animals.....	215
Extent of Forests.....	218
Feudal Grants and the Context of Forests.....	223
Protection / Conservation of Plants by Puṇya Enticement.....	224
Conservation from Below.....	230
References.....	235
CHAPTER VI : Involvement of Women.....	241-251
References.....	249

CHAPTER VII : Transboundary Exchange of Knowledge.....	252-258
References.....	257
CHAPTER VIII : Conclusion	259-265
BIBLIOGRAPHY.....	266-280
Primary Sources.....	266
Secondary Sources.....	269
GLOSSARY.....	281-283
APPENDIX : Illustrations.....	284-294