My interest in fern associated insects was engendered by my teacher and supervisor Dr. A. Mukhopadhyay of Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal. I record my indebtedness to Dr. Mukhopadhyay for giving me the rare opportunity of working under his direct guidance. His relentless supervision, encouragement, friendliness and help during the entire course of this investigation has made this study possible.

I am also grateful to Dr. D.C. Deb, Head, Dept. of Zoology, University of North Bengal for providing the necessary laboratory facilities and invaluable counselling. I express my gratitude to Prof. B.C. Pal, Prof. A.K. Chakravorty, Dr. P. Chaudhuri, Dr. J. Pal, Dr. C.S. Chakravorty and Dr. S. Barat of the department for their encouragement.

I owe thanks to the Director, Life Sciences N.B.U., the Head of the Department of Botany, N.B.U. and specially Mrs. U. Chakravorty, Deptt. of Botany for providing necessary advice and some essential chemical for the biochemical studies.

I sincerely acknowledge the help received from Prof. T.N. Ananthakrishnan and Prof. A. Raman, Entomology Research institute, Loyola College, Madras in form of literature and suggestions.

I specially like to thank Dr. T.C. Banerjee, Head, Deptt. of Zoology, Burdwan University ; Dr. J. Muthukrishnan , Deptt. of Bioenergetics , Madurai, Kamaraj University ; Prof. S.S. Krishna, Deptt. of Zoology, University of Gorakhpur, Profs. S.S. Bir, Deptt. of Botany, Punjab University for their literature and suggestions.

I owe my gratitude to J.G. Ottosson, J.M. Anderson, U.K.; S.D. Hendrix , U.S.A. ; C. Solbreck, Sweden ; C.H.F. Rowell and M. Rowell Rahier , Switzerland, for invaluable literature . I extend my heartfelt thanks also to Prof. C.W. Schaefer, U.S.A., Dr. Frank Slansky Jr., U.S.A., and Dr. M. Malipatil , Australia for their bountiful help of literature and encouragement.

The present work would have remained incomplete without the help of taxonomic experts of Botanical Survey of India, Indian Botanical Garden (Calcutta) ; Zoological Survey of India (Z.S.I) Calcutta , and Indian Agricultural Research Institute , New Delhi. In this connection, names of Dr. A.K. Ghosh, Director, ZSI and other specialists Dr. S.K. Ghosh, Mr. B. Biswas, Dr. K. Rai , Dr. S. Ghai, Dr. S.L. Gupta, Dr. V.V. Ramamurthy are specially acknowledged.

I also express my unfathomable thanks to North Bengal University Computer Centre and specially to Mr. G. Aich, for the help rendered in statistical analysis. I will be failing in my duty if I don't express my thanks to Dr. A.

Roy, Deptt. of Commerce , N.B.U. for providing our laboratory with some vital software packages.

The present study , in part , was supported by the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, through a project sanctioned to my teacher Dr. A. Mukhopadhyay. The materials and equipments available at the Entomology laboratory of the department (partly furnished by funds of Council of Scientific and Industrial Research and U.G.C. major research grants) have been used for the present study.

I take the privilege of specially thanking my colleagues Mr. Biswajit Saha , Mr. Subhasish Sannigrahi, Mr. Tapan Mondal , Mr. M. Dutta and Mr. Kalyan Pradhan for ungrudging help rendered whenever needed. Support and facilities provided by Mr. K. Deb (xeroxing) , Mr. N. Ghosh and Mr. B. Bagchi (drawing) are heartily acknowledged along with Bardhan Studio for photography.

Permission and cooperation received from my present employer Mr. J.L. Sharma, Head Master , Panighatta High School, Panighatta , in completion of the present work is kindly acknowledged.

I must also mention that I am privileged by the spontaneous encouragement from all the members of my family and support from parents and wife Mrs. Kalpana Thapa.

Thanks are also due to the University library, accounts section, and the Estate officer. A mention may also be made of the village folks and my friends who helped me during the survey works.

Finally, thanks and compliments to Mrs. M. Shrestha and Miss Mina Lama for typing the final manuscripts within a very short period with utmost care.
