

Acknowledgement

The present work of my research was carried out by me at the Department of Chemistry, University of North Bengal, Darjeeling, 734013, India.

I am exceedingly delighted in expressing my most sincere gratitude to my respected teacher and supervisor, Dr. Mahendra Nath Roy, Reader, Department of Chemistry, University of North Bengal, Darjeeling. Throughout my research period, I received constant guidance, valuable suggestions, constant inspiration and constructive criticism from him. Without his loving care, meticulous guidance and priceless supervision, the formulation of my work associated with my thesis in its present form could not have been possible.

I also express my deep sense of gratitude to late Prof. D.K. Hazra and Prof. S.K. Saha, Department of Chemistry, University of North Bengal for their invaluable assistance and continued inspiration during the course of my research work.

I am grateful to the University authority for providing laboratory facilities. The assistance of Scientific Instrumentation Centre and Computer Centre, University of North Bengal for helping in computational works concerned with my research and RK Cyber Zone, Computer Link, Shivmandir, are also acknowledged with thanks.

I express my gratitude to my father, Mr. Sitaram Sinha and mother, Smt. Shanta Sinha for their constant inspiration and support relating to my research.

In connection with this thesis, I like to extend my acknowledgement to Dr. Ankan Choudhury, Mr. Bhoj Bahadur Gurung, Mr. Biswajit Sinha, Smt. Mousumi Das, Mr. Vikas Kr. Dakua, Mr. Purak Das, Smt. Ritubarna Banerjee and Mr. Sankha Suvra Sanyal for their valuable help and support during the course of my research work,

I am also thankful to the University Grants Commission (U.G.C.) for sanctioning a Research Fellowship and providing financial assistance under the University of North Bengal, Darjeeling, in order to continue my research work associated with my Ph. D. thesis.

Lastly, it would be unforgivable act on my part if I do not acknowledge the way, my study subjects who helped me with their co-operation. I remain much grateful to them.
