It was a great pleasure to work under supervision of my teacher, Dr. Manas Das Gupte, Professor, Department of Economics, University of North Bengal. words, perhaps, are insufficient to express my real sense of gratitude for his valuable guidance, inspiring encouragement and untiring effort at every stage of this research project. It is needless to say that without his help, the present study would not have seen the light of the day. He indeed played a significant role in it. Beside his special affection for me, his deep commitment and involvement in the entire project have been important factors in the completion of this dissertation. Despite heavy pressure of work, he took keen interest all along and spared considerable time for me -- often sacrificing his extremely limited leisure time. I am deeply grateful to my teacher, guide and well-wisher.

I owe my deep gratitude also to Dr. D.B.Dutta, Vice-Chancellor, University of North Bengal and Mr. B.K.Bajpai, Registrar, University of North Bengal for their active support and enormous help in various ways.

I gratefully acknowledge the encouragement and assistance I received from the members of the teaching faculty including Dr.Hillool Chakraborty, Head of the Department of Economics and Dr. J.C.Debnath, Reader of Economics, University of North Bengal.

I express my gratitude to Mr. C. Sirmick, Deputy Collector, Kalimpong, Mr. B. L. Meena, I. A. S., Sub-Divisional Officer I, Kalimpong and my friend since student life, Mr. Tobden Wangchuk, W. B. C. S., former S. D. O. II, Kalimpong for their valuable assistance in the collection of some priceless documents.

I will be failing in my duties if I do not mention the name of my boyhood friend Tapash Kumar Mukherjee, Senior Staff Correspondent, Anandabazar Group of Publications, who helped and actively encouraged me in various fields for a satisfactory progress of the work.

Grateful acknowledgment is also due to Mr. S. B. Zimba, W. B. C. S., Former District Planning Officer, Darjeeling and Miss Penchu Ladenla, a State Government Officer and my friend for the assistance I received in the collection of some important reports and information.

I am thankful to Mr. P. Roy, I. A. S., A. D. C. (Development) and Mr. S. Mitra, I. A. S., A. D. C. (Development) and Dy. Secretary, Ministry of Hill Affairs, Darjeeling for their co-operation and help in the collection of a number of reports.

Members of the Staff of Deputy Commissioner's Record Room and the Library, Darjeeling deserve special thanks for providing necessary help in my search of old documents.

I am equally thankful to the staff of the Khasmahal Office, Kalimpong, Settlement Office, Kalimpong, J.L.R.O.'s Office, Kalimpong, District Settlement Office, Darjeeling, J.L.R.O.'s Office, Kurseong and Settlement Office, Kurseong for the valuable assistance I received from all of them.

I am thankful to Mr. D.N.Pradhan, Former District Project Officer, S.F.D.A. for his immense help and co-operation.

I am thankful to Mr. H.N.Pradhan, Government Pleader, Kurseong, for his active encouragement and guidance.

I am also thankful to the District Agricultural Marketing Officer, Darjeeling, Principal Agricultural Officer and the Staff of District Agricultural Office and the staff of the office of Cardamom Board, Kalimpong for rendering necessary help in my effort to collect relevant information.

My thanks are also due to Dr.(Mrs.) T.T.Kumar,I.A.S., Ex-Officio President, Governing Body, Kurseong College and Dr.Kumar Pradhan, Principal, Kurseong College where I work, for their inspiring encouragement and administrative help in all possible ways.

I am grateful to the Librarian and the staff of the North Bengal University Library and the staff of many other Libraries especially of the District Library of Darjeeling for their valuable assistance.

I am thankful to Mr. D.P.Rai, Headmaster, Upper Mawring Basic school for his extra-ordinary help in my Socio-Economic Sample Survey at Sittong, Turyok and Mawring (Upper and Lower) in 1970.

I was gratified to receive very encouraging response from many villagers of Lingsay Khazmahal area.

My students who helped me in the sample Survey of the villages deserve special mention here because without their help it would have been very difficult to collect the useful data.

I am also indebted to my elder brother, Mr. M.Shafi, a Central Government employee, Darjeeling, wife and my daughter for their continuous encouragement and active support needed for steady progress of the work.
