

CONTENTS

Page Nos.

◆ CHAPTER : I — INTRODUCTION	1–33
• An Overview of Foreign Investment in Indian Economy (Pre-Independence era)	1
• Development Strategy (Post Independence Era, 1951-1990)	2
• Shift in Development Strategy (Economic Reforms 1991)	3
• Globalization and Growing Inequality : Necessity for a Balanced Liberalization of Labour and Capital	3
• Economic Reforms in the Context of Washington Consensus	4
• Economic Reforms and Foreign Investment Meaning and Scope of Foreign Direct Investments (FDI)	6
• Definition of Multinational Enterprises (MNCs)	9
• Various kinds of Assets of MNCs	9
• Factors affecting FDI Policies of Host Countries	10
• Meaning and Scope of Foreign Portfolio Investment (FPI) and Distinction between FDI and FPI	11
• The Role and Necessity of Foreign Investment	12
• Bridging Four Gaps	16
• Major Concepts and Theoretical Framework	17
• The Purpose of the Study	29
• Plan of the Thesis	30
• Summary and Conclusions	31
• Notes and References	32–33
◆ CHAPTER : II — ECONOMIC REFORMS AND FOREIGN INVESTMENT : A GLOBAL VIEW	34–70
• Evolution of Economic Reforms : Stabilization and Structural Adjustment Programs	34
• Oil Crisis of 1970s, Debt Crisis of 1980s and Economic Reforms	36
• Globalisation : Meaning and Its Impact on Trade and Investment	36
• International Trade	37
• International Investment	38
• International Finance	38
• Financial Liberalization and Shift in Financing from Debt to Equity in Developing Countries	39
• Nature and Composition of Global Capital Flows to Developing Countries	42
• The Determinants and Causes of Global Capital Flows	43
• Global Flow of Foreign Direct Investment and International Production	46
• Distribution Pattern of FDI in Developed and Developing Countries : A Comparative View	50

• Regional Distribution of FDI	54
• Comparative Study of Global FDI and FPI Flows of Capital	58
• Foreign Portfolio Investment in Emerging Markets	59
• Growing Domination of Institutional Investors (FIIs) for Portfolio Investment (FPI) ...	62
• The Volatility of Foreign Portfolio Investment and FDI Flows into Developing Countries	63
• Summary and Concluding Remarks	64
• Notes and References	68-70
◆ CHAPTER : III — FOREIGN INVESTMENT SCENARIO DURING THE PRE-REFORM PERIOD IN INDIA (1947-90)	71-94
• Bombay Plan and Industrial Policy Resolutions of 1948 and 1956.	71
• Nehru's Statement on Foreign Capital.	71
• FDI Policies from 1947 to 1980.	72
• FDI Policies during the 1980s.	75
• The Opening Up of the 1980s.	76
• Foreign Direct Investments in India : (1947-1990 : Pre Reform Period).	79
• Sector Distribution of FDI Inflow in India (1964-1990)	80
• Organizational Distribution of FDI Inflow in India (1964-1990).	82
• Countrywise Inflow of FDI in India (1964-1990).	82
• Foreign Collaboration Approvals (1948-1990)	83
• Import Liberalization and Overdependence on Debt Financing in 1980s	85
• Foreign Exchange Inflow and Outflow of MNCs in India during Pre-Reform Period. ...	86
• BOP Crisis of 1990-91 and Its Causes.	87
• Concluding Remarks	91
• Notes and References	93-94
◆ CHAPTER : IV — FOREIGN INVESTMENT INFLOW DURING THE REFORM PERIOD IN INDIA (1991-96)	95-140
• The BOP Crisis of 1990 and its Origin	95
• Response and Strategy	95
• Reform-Oriented Industrial Policy	97
• Policies Regarding Foreign Direct Investment	98
• Policies Regarding Foreign Portfolio Investment	99
• Necessity of Foreign Investment in India	100
• Foreign Investment Flow in India : A Shift from Debt to Equity	102
• India's Share of FDI in Developing Countries	104
• Analysis and Appraisal of Actual Flow	104
• Distribution of Foreign Investment in FDI and FPI during Reform Period	107

• Sectoral Distribution of FDI Inflow during Reform-Period	108
• Distribution of Approvals According to Their Size in Value	109
• Country-wise Distribution of Approvals	110
• State-wise Distribution of Foreign Investments	111
• Approval of FDI vs. Actual Inflow	113
• Export Prospects of FDI and Foreign Exchange Outflow	114
• Impact of Foreign Investment Inflow on India's External Sector during Reform Period	118
• Foreign Portfolio Investment (FPI) Inflow Policy Background and Its Nature and Composition	122
• FPI Inflow during Reform Period (1991-1998)	123
• FII Investments on the Indian Stock Exchange	124
• Impact of FPI on Indian Stock Market	128
• Volatility in Stock Market and Hot Money Flows in India	131
• Causes and Consequence of Reversal of Portfolio Investment	132
• Stock Market is Less Volatile than Currency Market	133
• Growing Dominance of FIIs in Indian Stock Markets	133
• Two Types of Foreign Institutional Investors	135
• Need for Sterilization of Surging Capital Inflows	135
• Summary and Conclusions	136
• Notes and References	138-140
 ♦ CHAPTER : V — ECONOMIC REFORMS AND FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN CHINA	 141-174
• Different Phases of Economic Reforms in China	142
• Role of Foreign Investment in the Economic Growth of China	145
• Special Economic Zones (SEZs) and Economic and Technological Development Zones (ETDZs) in China (The Main Vehicle of Foreign Investment)	145
• FDI Inflow during Post Reform Period (1979-1997)	148
• The Three Waves of Foreign Investment	150
• The First Wave of Foreign Investment (1979-1985)	150
• The Second Wave (1986-1988)	151
• The Third Wave (1989-1994)	153
• Significance of China's Participation in MIGA	155
• Evaluation & Appriasal of FDI Inflow in China	158
• FDI Approval vs. Actual Flows	160
• Comparative Study of FDI Inflow and External Debt during the Reform Period, vis-à-vis Net Foreign Capital Inflow in China (1979-1990)	160
• Impact of FDI Inflow on External Debt during Reform Period	162
• Analysis of Countrywise Inflow of FDI in China	163

• Sectoral Distribution of FDI in China	165
• Growing Dominance FDI in China's International Trade and Gross Domestic Products (1991-1997)	165
• Impact of FDI Inflow on Balance of Payments	166
• Regional Distribution of FDI and Per Capita Income Growth	168
• Stock Markets Development in China	170
• Summary & Conclusions	171
• Notes and References	173-174
◆ CHAPTER : VI — FOREIGN PORTFOLIO INVESTMENT AND THE MEXICAN EXPERIENCE	175- 202
• A Brief Introduction to Mexican Economy	175
• First Economic Crisis of 1976	175
• Debt Crisis of 1982.....	177
• Economic Reforms (1982-1994)	177
• Maquiladorization	179
• Sectoral Distribution of FDI in Mexico (1990-1996)	181
• Shift in Funding of Current Account Deficit from Debt to Equity	181
• Analysis of Economic Growth and External Sector Change during the Reform Period (1982-94)	183
• Developments during 1988 to early 1994	185
• Analysis of Capital Account Movements (1988-1994).....	186
• Current Account Deficit — A Growing Trend (1988-1994)	187
• Pre-Peso Crisis Situation during February to December 1994	188
• The Peso-Crisis in 1994	189
• Causes of Mexican Peso Crisis	193
• Lessons to Be Learnt from Mexican Crisis	195
• Conclusions and Policy Implications	199
• Notes and References	201-202
◆ CHAPTER : VII — HOT-MONEY MOVEMENT AND SOUTH-EAST ASIAN CURRENCY TURMOIL AND LESSONS FOR INDIA	203- 246
• Historical Background of Global Financial Crisis	203
• Type of Crises	203
• Asian Tigers-a Myth.....	204
• Nature and Causes of the Crisis	206
• Currency Crises and Causes of Contagion	211
• Indicators of Vulnerability	212
• Surging Capital Flows in Crisis-Hit Countries.....	214
• Fire Sale FDI	215
• Incidence of the Crisis	215

• Similarity between Mexican Crisis and the Asian Crisis	216
• Speculative Currency Attacks	219
• IMF Bailout and Issues to Deal with Future Crisis	221
• Krugman's Diagnosis	224
• Optical Illusions of Jaffrey Sachs	226
• Capital Controls : Its Meaning and Purpose	227
• Vulnerability of Indian Economy to Financial Crisis	232
• Lessons from South-East Asian Currency Crisis	234
• Summary and Conclusion	237
• Notes and References	244-246
◆ CHAPTER : VIII — COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF INDIA, CHINA, MEXICO AND SOUTH-EAST ASIAN COUNTRIES	247- 276
• China and India: Comparative Study on Economic Reforms	247
• Common Features and Experiences	249
• Comparative Analysis of Foreign Direct Investment in Select Countries : India and China	250
• India and Mexico	254
• India and South-East Asian Countries	255
• Comparative Study of Private Capital Flows in Select Countries	260
• Comparative Study of Portfolio Investment and Stock Market Development in Select Countries	263
• A Comparative Study of Economic Parameters in the Select Countries	265
• Exchange Rate Policies (China and India)	267
• A Comparison of Indian Economy with the Asian Currency Crisis	268
• Summary and Conclusions	272
• Notes and References	276
◆ CHAPTER : IX — SUMMARY AND CONCLUDING OBSERVATIONS	277- 304
• A Brief Resume of the Main Points	301
• Notes and References	304
◆ BIBLIOGRAPHY	(a) - (l)