

A C K N O W L E D G E M E N T

This compilation of the research work in the form of a thesis has been possible due to the guidance of my supervisor and teacher Professor S. N. Sen, Senior Professor of Physics, North Bengal University. I do acknowledge my deepest sense of solemn gratitude to him for his abiding interest, initiation, encouragement and advice.

I extend my gratitude to Professor K.G.Emelëus, Department of Applied Mathematics and Theoretical Physics, the Queen's University of Belfast for his comments, help and criticism through correspondence, during the progress of the work.

I would like to recall my indebtedness to Dr. D.C.Jana, Lecturer in the Physics Department, North Bengal University and to his wife Mrs. K. Jana for the help they extended to me at the initial stage of my research career.

In the process of my research work I have received help and encouragement from Teachers, Staffs and Scholars of this department; and specially, I extend my thanks to Dr. S.K.Ghosal, Reader in the Physics Department, NBU, Dr. P. Mandal, Lecturer of Physics Department, NEHU, Shillong, Mr. S.K.Sarkar of USIC, NBU, Mr. S.K.Sarkar, Sr.Tech.Asstt., Physics Department, NBU, Dr.B.N.Paul, ITRC, Lucknow,

Contd.....

Mr. C.R. Nayak, System Engineer, Computer Centre, NBU and Dr. P. K. Paria, Scientific Officer of Chemistry Department, NBU.

I also extend my thanks to Mr. B. Bagchi, Mr. A. Ghosh and Mr. T. Pandit for drawing the figures for my thesis and to Mr. S. Choudhury, Physics Department, NBU who has typed the thesis.

I am overwhelmed by the kind and affectionate attitude of Mrs. Uma Sen who has treated me very sympathetically.

Lastly I appreciate the attitude of my dearest friend and co-worker Miss. Chandana Acharyya who has not only assisted me in my work but has encouraged me in the moments of greatest stress and strain during the course of the work.
