All praise to Allah, the Almighty.

In presenting this thesis I should like to put on record my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisors of research Dr. Manjulika Ghosh and Dr. P. Roy for their kindness and courtesy, and their keen interest in my work. Both Dr. Roy and Dr. (Mrs) Ghosh have instructed me with their profound knowledge of the subject and other literary works in the domain of my research and have been specially comforting by their warmth and concern.

The 'notes and references' attached to each chapter and the 'Bibliography at the end will show my indebtedness to various writers.

I should also like to thank my colleagues of the Department of Philosophy, University of North Bengal for kind cooperation.

My mother, Amina, would have my special gratefulness for obvious reasons.

I'd like to mention the name of my beloved partner of life Syeda Begum Toiabunnesa (Tutu), for her untiring help, patience and understanding. Her self-sacrificing nature, her love for me has been a perennial source of inspiration. No language can describe what I owe her. And my dear daughter Syeda Shirin Shabnam (Payel) has sustained me throughout my work.

My sincere love and gratitude to my friends and colleagues who have been helpful in connection with my discussion on the 'Moral Obligation' and some recent trends in ethical studies.

Last but not the least, I also express my appreciation for my students for inspiring and encouraging me in completing my work.
