

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep indebtedness to my mentor and guide Prof. M.M. Jana, Emeritus Fellow, Department of Geography and Applied Geography, University of North Bengal, India, who offered perennial help and guidance to me at every stage by his untiring and ever stimulating supervision, critical assessment and valuable comments. I am also equally thankful to Late Smt. Krishna Jana, for her caring attitude.

My sincere gratitude goes to the Department of Education, Govt. of West Bengal, for granting me permission to carry out my research work. I am extremely grateful to Mr. Dibyen Mukherjee, Director of School Education & Ex-Officio Joint Secretary, Govt. of West Bengal, for his support. I am thankful to Mr. B. Dasgupta, ADM (South 24 Pgs.) and Mr. Yadav, DFO, Kurseong for helping me to collect data. I am thankful to all Government officers of Kurseong, Mirik, Sukhiapokhri and Jorebunglow P. S.

I am equally thankful to Manager, Singel T. G., for supplying me with climatic data. I want to thank Mr. Anil Kumar Jha, Superintendent, Sungma Tea Estate and Mr. Rajesh Ranjan, for providing me information regarding different tea gardens.

I am very thankful to the teachers and staff of Department of Geography and Applied Geography, University of North Bengal. My sincere thanks are due to the officials of the library and other offices of the University of North Bengal.

I am indebted to Ms. S. Basu, Mrs. N. Das, and Ms. M. Banerjee for their support. I cannot forget to acknowledge the good wishes of my family, specially my mother Smt. Sabita Paul and my cousin Smt. Pamela Nath, that have been a constant source of encouragement and assistance. I am indebted to Mr. Jahangir Alam Sarkar for helping me to prepare my thesis.

Finally, I owe my deep debt of gratitude to my uncle Prof. Ramen Kar, without whose inspiration I would have never dared to start this research work.
