

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my heartiest gratitude to my guide Dr. Ali Mehdi to whom I shall remain indebted for his never-ending concerns and sensible dealing, for having inculcated in me a quest for excellence, a spirit of diligence, perseverance, a sense of responsibility and for complementing my worst with his best always.

He came to my rescue in moments of diffidence, reducing my confusion to clarity, rendering confidence & encouragement at each step. I keep in mind this record as the sign of a great debt that can never be repaid in life.

I express my respect and gratitude to Dr. B.P.Dwivedi, Reader, Department of Law, NBU, for some of his valued suggestions imparted while pursuing my work in the initial stage.

I express my profound respect and gratitude to Dr. A.K.Pandey, Department of Law, Banaras Hindu University, for his affectionate and valuable moral support during this research project.

I am very much gratified by the broad support and co-operation received from Mr. Atul Kr.Tiwari, Lecturer, Department of Law, NBU, for his commendable suggestion and help to complete the research work.

I dedicate a note for my mother who is no more for all the encouragement she had given to pursue an academic career.

Last but not the least, I want to thank my family members, my husband Santosh Sarkar, Lecturer, Haldia Law College, for his interesting suggestions and help in odd hours, my son Swapnoneel, thank you to bear with me.

Thanks are due to Sujit and Debjit for supplying me with some materials relevant for my work.

Finally, my only regret is because of the lapse of memory to mention each and every individual directly or indirectly who made contributions and deserve my gratitude. To them I extend my thanks and apologies.

Place: Siliguri

Date: 11.01.2005

Madhumiita Dhar Sarkar
(MADHUMITA DHAR SARKAR)