

Acknowledgement

First of all I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Debabrata Mitra, Associate Professor of Commerce, University of North Bengal, who has been my supervisor since the beginning of my study. He provided me with many helpful suggestions, important advice and constant encouragement during the course of this work.

I am grateful to Prof. Dr. Indrajit Roy, Department of Commerce, North Bengal University for his valuable suggestions.

I am also indebted to all the Managers, Assistant Managers, Trade Union Leaders, Labour Welfare Officers of different tea estates of Dooars Region for their whole hearted co-operation for this study.

I also thank to Mr. Chandan Dasgupta (Deputy Labour Commissioner), Mr. Subrata Ray, Mrs. Rini Sarkar and Dr. Amlan Ghosh for extending their help in conducting the empirical study.

I express my gratitude to all the scholars and teachers of the Department of Commerce for their advice and suggestions in this research work.

I owe a deep gratitude to the authorities of the University of North Bengal, different librarians and all those who inspired and helped me in this research work. I must thank Mr. Banty Lama and Somnath Ghosh for preparing a neat typed copy of the thesis.

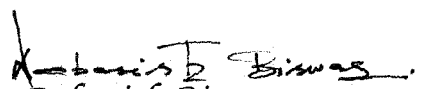

Lastly, I acknowledge my gratitude to my wife Mrs. Kabita Biswas for her continuous help and encouragement to complete my study.

The responsibility for errors remains mine alone.
