I grew up in the cultural periphery of the Kingdom of Koch Behar. Again in course of my investigation as Junior Research Scholar into the history and culture of the kingdom I became very much interested about its temples and the problems connected with it. My association with the places in the kingdom as the son of the soil, proved to be of great advantage during the period of my intense investigations. I am proud and fortunate enough to work under my respected teacher Dr. Pranab Kumar Bhattacharyya, Jadunath Sarkar Professor of History, University of North Bengal. I wish to express heartfelt and sincere gratitude for his active supervision and constant help, encouragement, advice and patience throughout the course of my research work.

I would like to express my gratefulness for valuable suggestions made by Prof. Amalendu Dey, Jadavpur University, Prof. Bhaskar Chatterjee, Burdwan University, Gautam Chatterjee, President of Paschim Bahga Itihāsa Saṁsād. I also record my indebtedness to late Nirmal Choudhury, Jalpaiguri, Nripendranath Paul, Cooch Behar, Shyamal Guha Roy, Kurseong College, Sailen Debnath, Kalimpong College, Chakradhar Das, Falakata College for their various help which I have received on several occasions.

I am deeply obliged to Dr. Mandira Bhattacharyya, Prof. T.K.Roychoudhury, Dr.Ananda Gopal Ghosh, Dr. Ichhimuddin Sarkar, and other respected teachers of the Department of History for their valuable suggestions, help and inspiration.

I also express my indebtedness specially to the Library and staff of Cooch Behar State Library, National Archives, New Delhi, National Library, Calcutta, State Archives, Calcutta, Asiatic society, Calcutta, North Bengal University and others for rendering valuable help in connection with my work.

I have received encouragement and help from several of my friends and scholars. I therefore express my heartiest thanks to Prakash Muhuri, Research Scholar, Atis Chakroborty, Research Scholar, Anjan Roychoudhury, Research Scholar, Liaquat Ali, M.C. College, Bangladesh for their encouragement and cooperation.

I pay my deepest regard to my parents who have been inspiring me for this work since its beginning. Last but not the least I convey my deep gratitude and gratefulness to Mrs. Rubi Bhattacharyya and to Rama, Pratima, Manik, Parimal, Siddhartha and Bedasruti, my younger brothers and sisters, for their constant inspiration in order to complete this work.
