

PREFACE

This tract on the concept of causality is finally completed and it is now ready to be submitted for evaluation. I should like to avail myself of this opportunity for expressing my gratitude and thankfulness to all the persons who have helped me in the process of drafting the thesis.

To say the best I am immensely grateful to my supervisors, Prof. Pabitra Kumar Roy and Prof. Manjulika Ghosh for their kindness in helping me clarify my ideas and improving my style and expression. It is but for them that I could complete my project.

To my wife Mrs. Arati Pramanik I stand in personal indebtedness for her emotional support and unfailingly comforting in the hours of gloom and despair. She never failed me in spite of her own physical distress and ailment.

To the teachers of the Department of Philosophy I remain beholden for their encouragement and inspiration. To Professor Raghunath Ghosh I am thankful for his kind and timely advice.

I thank the members of the staff of the University Library for their cooperation, and Sri Ashis Nag for bearing with me in composing and printing out the thesis in a presentable manner.
