

Acknowledgement

"Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high. Where knowledge is free"- realizing this philosophical insight, I have the pleasure to write a few words to express my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to many persons for their works, kind cooperation, helpful suggestions and constructive discussions.

My supervisor, Dr. Indrajit Ray, a stalwart researcher in economic history and reverend 'master-mosai' (teacher) and mentor has always showed me the path in the field of search for truth. I express my deepest gratitude to him, for his diligent guidance throughout this journey, never turning away from the countless queries and problems that I have badgered him with. Finally, it was his enlightening ideas which I have worked to transform, assimilate, re-synthesize and re-construct to the present form of this thesis. I gratefully acknowledge him for his whole hearted involvement in carrying out the research works. I can never forget the generous academic support and inspiration of Prof. B. P. Misra. With his guidance I had started investigating on such a novel topic that he churned out of his own intellect. I shall ever remain grateful to this personality for the most important reason, he persuaded Dr. Ray to accept me as scholar and become the supervisor during change over of guide (as Prof. Misra did not apply for the extension of his job after sixty years of age) which led me to continue as UGC JRF in Economics.

I would like to convey my sincere thanks to Mr. Ramaprassanna Misra for granting me the privilege to access all printed texts and documents in the Department of Commercial Intelligence, Kolkata.

During my initial days of data hunting from different and diverse sources in Kolkata, the familial and affectionate support I received from Late Prof. K. B. Dutta and his wife, Smt Santilata Dutta can not be forgotten. Without their support the job would have been much tougher.

I would like to take this opportunity to convey my deep regard to the past and present Directors of the Centre for Himalayan Studies for granting me free access to all the literary resources. I recollect my debt to this centre as it has given me the chance to re-enter the arena of higher studies. To all the faculty members I convey my deep regard.

I am thankful to all faculty members of the Department of Commerce, NBU, for their kind cooperation and interest in my work. I owe special thanks and gratefulness to Prof. M.K. Ray, Prof. P. R. Sengupta, Prof. A. Ray, Dr. D. Bhattacharya, Prof. S. N. Dhar, Dr. D. Roy, Dr. D. Mitra, Dr. H. Ray, Dr. K. Sett, and Dr. J. Sarkar for their cooperation, kind help and constant inspiration.

I would like to extend my grateful thanks to Dr. A. K. Nanda, Department of Chemistry, for his generous help and interest in my work.

My sincere and grateful acknowledgements are due to 'Bootda' (Dr. D. P. Boot, Centre for Himalayan Studies) for active cooperation, constructive discussions and suggestions, and unconditional help by rendering his cartographic skill to prepare all the maps for this thesis.

All the non-teaching members of the Commerce Department and Central Library have always come forward with helping hands. I thank all of them.

I wish to extend my sincere appreciation to Sri Tarun Chakraborty and Smt. Sutapa Chakraborty for their unconditional help and support in my days of misery and depression. I owe my indebtedness to all my family members of in-laws house, especially Sri Kaushik Chakraborty and Smt. Jhuma Chakraborty, Biwajit and Sreejata who have helped, advised and supported my endeavour in all possible kinds.

With deepest sorrow I remember the active interest of my 'Baba' in my higher studies, as he left me alone and I am deprived to share this moment with him today. I am in short of appropriate language to express my heartfelt gratitude to my mother, my beloved brother Ranjan, my uncle, Sri Subhas Sarkar, and Ranjan's wife Ruma, and all others who remained with me extending their affection and constant inspiration at the most stressful situations during the entire period of my research work.

Words are insufficient to thank or acknowledge my husband, Sri Ranadhir Chakraborty, an incomparable human being who relieved me in the most competent and helpful way by sharing every bit of struggle in daily life. The destiny of my academic career became intertwined with his spirit. I wish to greet my daughter, Riddhi, too, as she learnt to cope up with my schedule without any grudge.

Finally, I express my deep gratitude and thanks to all persons who have obliged me in various ways.

Last, but never the least, my grateful acknowledgement to all those numerous authors and researchers and their valuable research papers and texts, which have helped me in navigating through this challenging field of Economic history.

Date: 7. 7. 08.

Ratna Sarkar
Ratna Sarkar