

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Effort is crowned by success”. Inspired by my school’s motto, I embarked into the research field to make my lifetime’s dream come true. The hurdles were tough throughout but successfully crossed with the collective effect of hard work, inspirations, determination, dedication and support. Today, my dream has changed to a reality, it has got a shape, a shape of Ph. D. thesis with the contribution of so many people around me whom I heartily acknowledge.

First of all, I am very much indebted to my supervisors Dr. E. Sharma, FNASc, former Scientist In-charge of G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development, Sikkim Unit and now Programme Manager, Natural Resource Management, International Centre for Integrated Mountain Development, Kathmandu, Nepal and Dr. S.C. Rai, Scientist ‘C’, G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development, North-East Unit, Itanagar, Arunachal Pradesh for their unending support, right guidance and constant encouragement throughout my work. Despite their busy schedule, they never failed to clear my confusions and showed me the right direction. I pay my respectful gratitude to them.

I am thankful to the Director, G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development for taking keen interest in my work and Mr A.P. Krishna, Scientist In-charge, G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development, Sikkim Unit, for providing the necessary facilities throughout my study period.

I take the privilege to pay deep respect to Dr. R.C. Sundriyal, Scientist In-charge, G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development, North-East Unit for the valuable inputs endowed by him during my writing phase. I specially thank him for providing all the facilities to me during thesis writing. Dr.(Mrs) Rita Sharma deserves special thanks for her constant involvement, encouragement and support during the tenure of my work. Dr.(Mrs) Manju Sundriyal is heartily thanked for her hospitality during my thesis writing.

I am highly grateful to Prof. J.S. Singh, FNA, Department of Botany, Banaras Hindu University, Professor R.S. Tripathi, FNA, Department of Botany, North Eastern Hill University, Shillong and Prof. K.M.M. Dakshini, Department of Botany, Delhi University for their visionary ideas and time to time suggestions during my study period.

I am indebted to Dr. J.P. Tamang, Department of Botany, Sikkim Government College, Dr. Trilochan Singh, Scientist In-charge, Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology, Arunachal Unit, Dr. Tarachand Upreti and Manoj Tiwari, North-East Unit of G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development and Mr. A.K. Yadav, Assistant Engineer, Department of Irrigation and Flood Control, Government of Arunachal Pradesh, for their constant support and encouragement. I record my sincere thanks to them.

I pay thanks to my seniors Dr. Nakul Chettri, Dr. Ghanashyam Sharma, Dr. H.B.K. Singh and colleague Mr. Santosh Chettri for their support whenever I needed. The homesick feeling during four years of research outside my home state was antagonized by the homely atmosphere and love rendered by Mrs. Sunita Kharel, Lecturer, Department of History, Sikkim Government College and her family. I specially thank Mrs. Kharel for her generosity and providing constant encouragement to me.

Mrs. Sabita Krishna never hesitated to provide library books. Dr. K. K. Singh, Mr. L.K. Rai, Mr. J. Dhakal and family, Dr. Y.K. Rai, Mr. M.V.S Manian, Mr. R.K. Das, Mr. Prem Kumar Tamang, Mr. Sunil, Mr. Musafir Rai, Mr. Mohan Thapa, Mr. A.K. Tamang, Mr. Purna Bahadur Chettri and Mr. Shyambir of G.B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development, Sikkim Unit are thanked for their help during the course of my work. I also thank the research scholars and office staffs of G.B. Pant Institute of North-East unit for their warmth and cooperation.

I highly value and appreciate the constant encouragement provided by Mr. I.P. Sharma, St. Mary's Hill, Kurseong during the study tenure. I also acknowledge Mr. Binod Chandra Sharma, Lecturer, Department of Botany, Darjeeling Government College for inculcating research interest in me.

Above all my parents are the ultimate source of inspiration to me. I pay my deep respect and love to them for their never ending support. My relatives are also thanked for their constant encouragement.

Lastly, I am thankful to the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, New Delhi for sponsoring the work. Without the financial support from them, the present study would not have been initiated and completed.
