

Contents

	Page
Introduction .....	1
Chapter – 1: Land Revenue Systems of the Jalpaiguri District .....	22
Land Revenue Systems of the Duars in the Pre- Colonial Period .....	22
Land Revenue under the Permanent Settlement.....	25
Waste land in the Duars .....	34
Land Revenue in the Western Duars.....	38
Chapter – 2 : Growth of Tea Plantation and its Impact on Agrarian Economy .....	74
Land Acquisition for the tea plantation.....	75
Tea – Plantation under European and Indian Proprietors.....	80
Imported labourers in the Duars and Their Condition.....	92
Chapter 3: Land devolution: Socio- Economic and Demographic Changes .....	106
Immigration and Emmigration : A New Demographic

Structure of the Duars 1870 – 1900.....	106
Condition of Peasants, Adhiars (Sharecroppers) Agricultural Labourers and Tribal people.....	119
Condition of the Jotdars.....	126
Condition of the Intermediaries.....	137
Condition of the Sharecroppers or Adhiars.....	143
Chapter – 4 : Resistance of the Peasants and Agricultural Labourers .....	161
Hat Tola Movement .....	166
Adhiars Movement.....	168
Tebhaga Movement.....	171
Naxal Movement.....	199
Chapter – 5 : Land Revenue and Land Reforms in the Post – Colonial Period.....	221
West Bengal Estate Acquisition Act, 1953 .....	224
West Bengal Land Reforms Act, 1955.....	228
Success of the land Reforms in West Bengal.....	247
Operation Barga .....	260
Limitations of the Land Reforms in West Bengal .....	268

Chapter – 6 : Problems of Lease lands in the District.....	285
Lease land in the Tea – Gardens.....	292
lease land in Alipurduar Town.....	293
Problem of Adverse land and Chhitmahals (Enclaves) in the Boundary Areas of Coochbehar, Jalpaiguri and Bangladesh.....	303
Conclusion : .....	314