

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and heartfelt thanks to my research supervisor Prof. K. K. Bagchi, Professor & Head, Department of Economics, University of North Bengal. This is a great opportunity for me to carry out my research work under an energetic, inspiring and kind academic personality, in the absence of whom this research work would not have been materialized. Prof. Bagchi continuously inspired, encouraged and guided with valuable suggestions and advices. As a result, the present research work formed the final shape.

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude and thanks to the following faculty members of Department of Economics, N.B.U.: Prof. Jeta Sanskrityayan (Retired), Prof. Anil Bhuimali (Presently Vice-Chancellor, Raiganj University), Prof. (Mrs) Sanchari Roy Mukherjee (Presently Dean, Faculty Council for P. G. Studies in Arts, Commerce & Law, NBU), Dr. Kanchan Datta, Ms Sudakshina Roy Dutta, Dr. Govinda Choudhury, Mr. Tamash Ranjan Majumdar and Mr. Karan Tamang. I am highly indebted to Prof. Rathin Bandyopadhyay, Professor and Head, Department of Law, N.B.U. and Mr. Brindaban Karmakar, Jt. Librarian & Librarian (In-Charge), University Library, N.B.U. Special thanks go to my friends who directly and indirectly assist in my research work.

I would also like to express my sincere gratitude and thanks to (a) family members, particularly elderly members of my respondent households and (b) persons who assisted me in collection of data of Malda and Jalpaiguri districts; in absence of their supports this research work would not have been completed.

Finally, my heartfelt thanks go to my parents, mother-in-law, husband, daughters, sister and brother, sister-in-laws and brother-in-laws, nieces and nephews.
