

Acknowledgement

It is a matter of immense pleasure for me to be so fortunate that the successful completion of this work under careful supervision of Dr. Monoranjan Chowdhury, Department of Botany, University of North Bengal. So I convey my earnest gratitude to him for his firelessly guidance, inspiration and encouragement throughout the course of my academic endeavours. His unconditional support and assistance in field and laboratory during my research always remain incised somewhere deep within me for the rest of my days. Without his supervision it was not possible even to conclude this work.

I would like to express my heartiest gratitude to Prof. S.C. Roy, Head of the Department of Botany, University of North Bengal Prof. A. Saha, Prof. A. Sen, Dr. P. Mandal, Dr. J. B. Bhamdari, Dr. S. Roy and Dr. P. Mathur, the faculties of our Department for their valuable advice and encouragement throughout the course of this work. My thanks also go for all the non-teaching staff of the Department of Botany for their various kinds of assistance.

I am also indebted to Prof. Ranjan Roy, Department of Geography, University of North Bengal for his immense help in my research work.

I am also gratefully acknowledged the help and support of Dr. Prosenjit Chakraborty and my friends (Mr Dipayan Das, Ms Tanushree Sarkar, Mr Asit Ray, Mr Indranjit Singha and Mr Subhro Sarkar) during the course of study.

Special thanks are due to all my lab-mates, seniors and juniors namely, Dr. Rajib Biswas, Dr. Dibakar Chowdhury, Dr. Anurag Chowdhury, Mr. Sujit Mondal, Ms. Baishakhi Sarkar, Ms. Deepika Chhetri, Ms. Roshni Chowdhury, Ms. Keya Modak, Mr. Aratrik Pal.

I would like to acknowledge UGC-BSR (University Grants Commission – Basic Scientific Research) New Delhi for their financial support in the form of fellowship for pursuing this work otherwise which would not have been possible.

I am also thankful to Md. Eqramul Ali, Md. Wazed Ali, Mr. Madhav Chandra Singha and other staffs of NBU Garden of Medicinal Plant for their support.

At the end it would have not been possible for me to carry out my research work aiming to attain the Ph.D without the love, affection and continuous encouragement of my respected and beloved parents (Sri Debabrata Paul and Smt. Mridula Paul) for their moral support during the course of study.
