

CONTENTS

PREFACE

1-2

CHAPTER - I

3-14

Historical development of the causal theory in Indian and Western philosophical systems and their metaphysical presuppositions behind the postulation of a particular theory.

CHAPTER - II

15-39

The concept of kāraṇa and kārya in Indian logic. The various forms of cause and their philosophical significance.

CHAPTER - III

40-45

Causal theories in Advaita Vedānta, Buddhism, Sāṃkhya and Cārvāka.

Accidentalism and Naturalism

CHAPTER - IV

56-85

A critical evaluation of the opponents views and a defense of Nyāya position

CHAPTER - V

86-149

Some philosophical problems and their solutions. Nature of causal relation whether it is a kind of svarūpa relation or not. Comparison with some views of the Western thinkers.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

150-153