

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my esteemed supervisors Professor Ananda Mukhopadhyay and Dr Min Bahadur, Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal for their invaluable guidance and support throughout the tenure of my PhD study. Without their perpetual guidance, it would have been extremely difficult for me to accomplish the objectives of my study. I am also grateful to Professor Sudip Barat, Professor Soumen Bhattacharjee, Dr Dhiraj Saha, and Mr Tilak Saha, faculty members of the Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal for their encouragements and cooperation during the study. I am also thankful to Professors Joydeb Pal and Tapas Kumar Choudhuri, former revered teachers of the Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal for their valuable suggestions and positive criticisms.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Professor Dinendra Raychaudhuri, Department of Zoology, University of Calcutta for identifying the spider species pertaining to my study.

I will remain indebted forever to my teachers Mrs Swapna Chhetri, Associate Professor, presently deployed at the Department of Zoology, APC Roy Government College, Matigara and Mr Yuvraj Gurung, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Darjeeling Government College, Darjeeling for imparting me the basic knowledge of Zoology, providing support during my hard days of M. Sc. pursuance and constant inspiration and encouragement thereafter. Words are insufficient to express my gratefulness to them.

I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to my co-workers, Dr Soma Das, Mr Ritesh Biswa, Mrs Sangita Khewa (Subba), and Ms Anjali Km. Prasad for their ungrudging help and suggestions.

Help extended by Mr Tinku Roy, former Laboratory Attendant of the Entomology Research Unit, Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal in maintaining insect culture and sampling is highly appreciated.

I would also like to thank all the research scholars of the Department of Zoology, University of North Bengal for their extended cooperation and support as and when needed.

Expertise rendered by Dr D. R. Dahal, Research Associate, Department of Science and Technology, Government of Sikkim and Mr Baidurya Biswas, Research

Scholar, Department of Geography and Applied Geography, University of North Bengal in cartography are heartily appreciated.

I am also thankful to the managers and other stakeholders of various tea plantations for their cooperation during sampling.

The financial assistance provided by the University Grants Commission, New Delhi in the form of BSR fellowship, vide letter No. F.25-1/2013-14 (BSR)/7-134/2007(BSR) Dated: 30th May 2014 to me is duly acknowledged.

Lastly, but most importantly I would like to acknowledge the sacrifices made by my ailing parents Mr Geet Bahadur Basnet and Mrs Ratna Maya Basnet, my better half Mrs Rewati Pradhan and younger brother Mr Santosh Basnet, for providing unconditional and perpetual support to me for pursuing and chasing my dreams. Without their immense support and encouragement, it would be next to impossible to accomplish the task.
