CHAPTER-1 Introduction	1-12
1.1 Economic Growth : The need	1
1.2 Trade and Economic Growth	1
1.3 Export-Led Growth (ELG) Proposition	1
1.4 Some Discordant Views against ELG Proposition	3
1.5 Growth-Led Export (GLE) Proposition	4
1.6 Proposition of Feedback Relationship	4
1.7 Proposition of Independence	4
1.8 Variants of Hypotheses	4
1.9 Income-Export Relationship in South Asian Countries	5
1.10 Objective of the Study	6
1.11 The Economy of Sri Lanka	7
1.12 Exports of Sri Lanka	8
1.13 Sectoral GDP Growth, Investment and Savings	8
1.14 Specific Issues Under Study	10
1.15 Plan of the Study	11
CHAPTER-2 Literature Survey	13-37
2.1 Introduction	13
2.2 Findings on the Stationarity of Income series	13
2.3 Findings on the Stationarity of Export Series	15
2.3 Findings on Cointegration	16
2.4 Findings on Export-Led Growth	18
2.5 Findings From Major Empirical Studies	20
CHAPTER-3 Methodological Issues	38-63
3.1 Introduction	38
3.2 The Basic Problem	39
3.3 The Nature Of The Problem	39
3.4 Stationarity: Relevance of Unit Root Tests	40
3.5 Unit Root Test: The Methodology	41
3.6 Augmented Dickey Fuller Unit Root Test	42
3.7 The DF- GLS Unit Root Test	43
3.8 Phillips-Perron unit Root Test	43
3.9 Correlogram	44

3.10 Cointegration	45
3.11 Cointegration: Definition	45
3.12 Four Cases for Cointegration	46
3.13 Vector Error Correction Modeling	47
3.14 Granger Causality: Introduction	48
3.15 Methodology	48
3.16 Conventional Granger Causality Test	53
3.17 'Window Finding' of Structural Changes: Methodology	53
3.18 Vector Autoregressive (VAR) Model	58
3.19 Stability of the VAR Model	61
3.20 Impulse Response Functions	62
3.21 Variance Decomposition	63

CHAPTER-4 Study Of Stationarity & Co-Integration For Export Growth And Economic Growth 64-74

4.1 Introduction	64
4.2 The Data	64
4.3 Graphical Presentation of Series	65
4.4 Augmented Dickey-Fuller Tests for Unit Roots in Different Series	66
4.5 Phillips-Perron Unit Root Tests	69
4.6 Correlogram Analysis for Stationarity	73
4.7 Findings from the Correlograms	74
4.8 Summary of Findings on Stationarity	74
4.9 Cointegration: Meaning & Relevance	74
4.10 Four Cases for Cointegration	75
4.11 Long-run Relationship Between Income Growth and Export Growth	75

CHAPTER-5 Stability Of The Long-Run Relationship Between Income Growth And Export Growth 76-83

5.1 Introduction	76
5.2 The VEC Model	76
5.3 Results of Estimation	77
5.4 Stability of the VEC Model	78
5.5 Normality of the VEC Residuals	80
5.6 Findings from the Table 5.1 [Eqn 5.1] in the VEC Model	81
5.7 Economic Interpretations of the Findings [Eqn 5.1]	81

5.7 The Findings From the Table-5.1 [Eqn 5.2]	82
5.8 Economic Interpretations of the Findings From the Table 5.1 [Eqn 5.2]	82
5.9 Summary of Findings	83
CHAPTER-6 VAR Model of Export Growth And Economic Growth In The Economy Of Sri Lanka	84-100
6.1 Introduction	84
6.2 The VAR Model	84
6.3 Features of the VAR Model	84
6.4 Selection of Lag Length	85
6.5 The Estimable VAR Model	86
6.6 Results of Estimation of the VAR Model	86
6.7 Conditions of Stability for the VAR Model	88
6.8 Stability of the Estimated VAR Model	89
6.9 Normality of the VAR residuals	91
6.10 Serial Independence of the VAR Residuals	92
6.11 Further Confirmation of Serial Independence for the VAR Residuals	93
6.12 Homoscedasticity of the VAR Residuals	94
6.13 Further Confirmation of Homoscedasticity of the VAR Residuals	95
6.14 Confirmation of Homoscedasticity of the VAR Residuals	97
6.15 Findings From the Table 6.2 [Equation (6.3)]	99
6.16 Economic Interpretations of the Findings	99
6.17 Findings From the Table 6.2 [Equation (6.4)]	100
6.18 Economic Interpretations of the findings	100
6.19 Overview of Findings	100
CHAPTER-7 Intervention Analysis Through The Study Of Impulse Response Functions For Export Growth And Economic Growth In Sri Lanka	101-107
7.1 Introduction	101
7.2 Graphical Presentation of Impulse Response Functions For Economic Growth	101
7.3 Findings From the Figure-7.1	105
7.4 Findings From the Figure-7.2	105

7.5 Overall Findings on the Nature of Economic Growth Responses	106
7.6 Graphical Presentations of Impulse Response Functions for Export Growth (X_t)	106
7.7 Findings from the Figure-7.3	106
7.8 Findings from the Figure -7.4	107
7.9 Findings From the Joint Study of the Figures 7.3 and 7.4	107
7.10 Overall Findings from the Study with Impulse Response Functions	107
CHAPTER-8 Intervention Analysis Through The Study Of Variance Decompositions	108-111
8.1 Introduction	108
8.2 Variance Decomposition of Income Growth	108
8.3 Findings from the Table-8.1 and Figure-8.1	109
8.4 Variance Decomposition of Export Growth	110
8.5 Findings from the Table- 8.2 and Figure- 8.2	111
8.6 Summary of Findings	111
CHAPTER-9 Granger Causality Between Economic Growth And Export Growth	112-115
9.1 Granger Causality Test: The Estimable Model	112
9.2 Findings From The Tables 9.1-9.2 [Equation 9.1]	115
9.3 Findings From The Tables 9.3-9.4 [Equation 9.2]	115
9.4 Overview of Findings	115
CHAPTER-10 Spectral Analysis For Further Confirmation Of The Nature of Granger Causality	116-130
10.1 Introduction	116
10.2 Spectral Estimation: Methodology	117
10.3 Univariate Periodograms Nature and Significance	121
10.4 Spectral Density Representations: Nature and Significance	124
10.5 The 'Cospectral Density by Frequency' For Income Growth (Y) and Export Growth(X)	125
10.6 'Coherency Spectrum' For Y and X	127
10.7 'Gain Spectrum' For Y and X	128
10.8 'Phase Spectrum' for Y and X	129
10.9 Overview of Findings from the Spectral Analysis	130

CHAPTER-11 Summary And Conclusion 131-134

11.1 Introduction	131
11.2 Stationarity	131
11.3 Long-Run Relationship	131
11.4 Stability of the Lon-Run Relationship	131
11.5 Causal Relation	132
11.6 Findings from the Study of Impulse Response Functions	132
11.7 Findings from the Study of Variance Decomposition	133
11.8 Findings from the Study of Spectral Analysis	133
11.9 Concluding Remarks	134
