

CONTENTS:

TOPIC	Page No.
Preface	x
Introduction	A1-A4
CHAPTER :1—HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVES OF TERRORISM.	1—30
A. Antiquity, B. The Roman Age, C. The Ancient and Middle East, D. The French Revolution: prelude to Modern Terrorism, E. Nineteenth century Europe: Two Examples from the Left, F. The Modern Era and the War on Terror, G. Exploring Definitions and Sources, H. The Morality of Terrorist Violence, I. Terrorism and Criminal skill, J. Terrorist Symbolism: Oklahoma City and September 11,2001.
CHAPTER : 2—SOCIO-POLITICAL, SOCIOLOGICAL, PSYCHOLOGICAL, SOCIO-ECONOMIC, AND SOCIO-RELIGIOUS IMPACT OF TERRORISM.	31—86
1) Socio-political 2) Sociological 3) Psychological 4) Socio-economic 5) Socio-religious impact of terrorism.
CHAPTER : 3—PHILOSOPHICAL FOUNDATION OF TERRORISM.	87—147
A. The foundation of Terrorism, B. Defining extremism, C. Common Characteristics of violent extremist, D. The world of extremist, E. Defining Terrorism: An ongoing debate, F. A Sampling of Formal Definitions, G. The American Context: Defining Terrorism in the United States, H. Types of Terrorism, I. Perspectives of Terrorism, J. Can Terrorism be justified? K. Justifications of Terrorism are unsuccessful, L. The Excuses for Terrorism, M. The Response to Terrorism, N. Oppression and Terrorism, O. The Appeal to Morality versus the Appeal to Law, P. Attacking the Innocent.
CHAPTER : 4—TERRORISM AND HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATION.	148—173
A. Terrorism and Human Rights, B. Countering Terrorism- Protecting Human Rights, C. International Law: UN Security Council Counter Terrorism Resolution, 1373, D. International Law: Campaign against Terrorism and Protecting Human Rights, E. State Autonomy and International Systems, F. The Actions and Initiatives of Civil Society.
CHAPTER : 5—CONCLUSION	147—190
BIBLIOGRAPHY—	191—196