

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The present research study was started in 2001 . The research was supervised by Professor (Dr.) Sekh Rahim Mondal, Head, Department of Anthropology , University of North Bengal , whom I not only thank amply but also owe a deep sense of gratitude for his invaluable guidance and constant encouragement in the course of this entire work . I am also thankful to all the teachers of the Department of Anthropology, North Bengal University for their valuable suggestion to complete the research work and to prepare the thesis.

I am really grateful to the officials of North Bengal University Library , National Library - Kolkata and Anthropological Survey of India Library - Kolkata for providing me the opportunity to use the various books and other materials related to my research work .

Indeed, I am obliged to the authorities of the Government Institute of Cottage Industry , Cooperatives and Directorate of Census Operation (Government of India) and many other district level authorities and officials of various departments of the State Government of Sikkim for their unstinted help in the collection of data . Besides, vivid cooperation and warm help received from the informants are also gratefully acknowledged.

Least but not the last I am obliged to my Mother-in-law , in-law elder brother and other members of in-law family as well as parents for the support and cooperation to complete this work. My husband (Dr. Amal Datta) and my little daughter Chaitali Datta who have been my major source of inspiration to carry out this research work against all odds.
